

The Legislature of Missouri Once Erected a Monument to—

It's a good story, WITH PICTURES, in next Sunday's Republic.

NINETYTHIRD YEAR.

GREAT OVATION GIVEN BRYAN AND STEVENSON.

National Candidates Addressed the Democratic Clubs at Indianapolis.

W. R. HEARST RE-ELECTED.

Resolutions Follow Kansas City
Platform—Convention Adjourned.

BY WILLIAM J. ARTHUR.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 4.—Almost enthusiastic attendance was given to the address of the Democratic National Convention at the Indiana Statehouse today. The speakers were W. R. Hearst and William J. Bryan. The audience was estimated at 10,000.

Great Ovation to Hearst.
But all the afternoon there was an under-current of excitement and expectancy.
Finally there was a burst of applause.
It came from the platform, but it was not for the speaker. It was for the audience. The speaker was Bryan.

Then came an ovation which very much resembled that given when Bryan was nominated at Kansas City. It lasted fully three minutes. The audience was wildly waving their hands and shouting themselves hoarse. Bryan was on the platform, but he was not the center of attention.

When the ovation was over, Bryan was introduced. He was in his element. He spoke with every word of conviction. He spoke with every word of sincerity. He spoke with every word of truth.

A special reason for the ovation was the fact that Bryan was the first candidate to be nominated at the Democratic National Convention.

CHIEFMAN McKEE'S PROPERTY.
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 4.—The report of the committee on the Democratic National Convention was received today.

Augustus Thayer, the playwright of New York, made an address, after which the committee on the Democratic National Convention was received.

At 10 o'clock the convention adjourned
for the night. The speakers were
W. R. Hearst and William J. Bryan.

At 10 o'clock the convention adjourned
for the night. The speakers were
W. R. Hearst and William J. Bryan.

At 10 o'clock the convention adjourned
for the night. The speakers were
W. R. Hearst and William J. Bryan.

At 10 o'clock the convention adjourned
for the night. The speakers were
W. R. Hearst and William J. Bryan.

At 10 o'clock the convention adjourned
for the night. The speakers were
W. R. Hearst and William J. Bryan.

At 10 o'clock the convention adjourned
for the night. The speakers were
W. R. Hearst and William J. Bryan.

HEARST MAKES A GREAT OFFER.

At the Convention of Democratic Clubs at Indianapolis yesterday the announcement was made that the Democratic National Committee was in need of money, and that for every dollar raised by the Democratic clubs the members thereof would be entitled to a vote in the election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the
Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the
Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the
Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the
Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the
Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the
Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the
Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the
Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the
Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

W. R. Hearst, who was the first to make the offer, said that
he would give $100,000 to the Democratic National Committee if
it would give him a vote in the
election of the Democratic National Committee.

THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.

ST. LOUIS, MO., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1900.

IMPERIALISM! TWO ARRESTS AFTER MILLIONAIRE'S DEATH.

Attorney and Secretary of William Marsh
Rice Accused of Attempting Forgery
for $270,000.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

New York, Oct. 4.—Captain George V. Mc-
Closkey of the Detective Bureau tonight
announced that he had secured the names of William Marsh Rice to be arrested.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

IMPERIALISM!

TWO ARRESTS AFTER MILLIONAIRE'S DEATH.

Attorney and Secretary of William Marsh
Rice Accused of Attempting Forgery
for $270,000.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

New York, Oct. 4.—Captain George V. Mc-
Closkey of the Detective Bureau tonight
announced that he had secured the
names of William Marsh Rice to
be arrested.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

Mr. Rice died a week ago last Sunday in
his apartment at No. 10 Madison avenue.
Under circumstances which excited the
curiosity of the public, and the
fact that he was a millionaire.

EIGHT OUTGOING TRAINS DELAYED.

Derailment of an Engine at Union Station Holds Homeward-Bound Fair Crowds.

KEPT BACK THREE HOURS.

Estimated That a Thousand Passengers Were on the Trains, Which Could Not Depart
on Schedule Time.

The jamming of the track at the entrance to Union Station last night by Terminal engine No. 24, caused a delay of more than three hours to eight trains, on the most important system leaving this city and was a source of the greatest inconvenience to more than a thousand passengers. The engine, which was on the track at 7 o'clock in the evening, and it was half past 10 before it was replaced upon the rails.

When the engine started to turn into the
station, while the Terminal engine was engaged in backing the 8-12, the 8-12, which
was on the track at 7 o'clock in the evening,
and it was half past 10 before it was replaced
upon the rails.

When the engine started to turn into the
station, while the Terminal engine was
engaged in backing the 8-12, the 8-12, which
was on the track at 7 o'clock in the evening,
and it was half past 10 before it was replaced
upon the rails.

When the engine started to turn into the
station, while the Terminal engine was
engaged in backing the 8-12, the 8-12, which
was on the track at 7 o'clock in the evening,
and it was half past 10 before it was replaced
upon the rails.

When the engine started to turn into the
station, while the Terminal engine was
engaged in backing the 8-12, the 8-12, which
was on the track at 7 o'clock in the evening,
and it was half past 10 before it was replaced
upon the rails.

When the engine started to turn into the
station, while the Terminal engine was
engaged in backing the 8-12, the 8-12, which
was on the track at 7 o'clock in the evening,
and it was half past 10 before it was replaced
upon the rails.

When the engine started to turn into the
station, while the Terminal engine was
engaged in backing the 8-12, the 8-12, which
was on the track at 7 o'clock in the evening,
and it was half past 10 before it was replaced
upon the rails.

When the engine started to turn into the
station, while the Terminal engine was
engaged in backing the 8-12, the 8-12, which
was on the track at 7 o'clock in the evening,
and it was half past 10 before it was replaced
upon the rails.

When the engine started to turn into the
station, while the Terminal engine was
engaged in backing the 8-12, the 8-12, which
was on the track at 7 o'clock in the evening,
and it was half past 10 before it was replaced
upon the rails.

ARMY OF STRIKERS WAS TURNED BACK.

Eleven Thousand Angry Men and Boys Dispersed by Mine Workers' Officer.

Miners From Shamokin and Mount Carmel Were Marching on Treverton Collieries to Force a Suspension of Work.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 4.—Three thousand men, armed with clubs and stones, were seen marching toward Treverton, Pa., today.
The march was turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

The march was turned back by a
company of miners. The march was
turned back by a company of miners.

One of the Things to See at Fores Park Just Now.

Read it in Next Sunday's Republic and then go out and see for yourself.

PRICE In St. Louis, One Cent.
Outside St. Louis, Two Cents.
On Trains, Three Cents.

LEADING TOPICS —IN— TO-DAY'S REPUBLIC.

For Missouri—Fair in southern, rain and cooler in northern and central portions Friday. Friday and Saturday, southeasterly and shifting to northwesterly winds.

For Illinois—Showers in northern, fair in southern portions Friday and probably Saturday; fresh southeasterly winds.

For Arkansas—Fair in northern, rain in central and southern portions Friday and probably Saturday; fresh southeasterly winds.

1. Ovation Given Bryan and Stevenson.
2. Trains Delayed at Union Station.
3. Army of Strikers Was Turned Back.
4. Two Arrests After Millionaire's Death.
5. Eight Outgoing Trains Delayed.

6. Miners From Shamokin and Mount Carmel Were Marching on Treverton Collieries to Force a Suspension of Work.

7. Transvaal Devastated.
8. Ruin and Desolation in Wake of Britain's Imperial Army.

9. Soldiers Killed in a Wreck.
10. Russians Sent Troop Trains Together Near Tong-Shan.

11. Germans Talk of Revenge.
12. Allied Commanders Oppose a Suspected Plan.

13. Hannan's Ignorance of Trusts.
14. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.

15. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.
16. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.

17. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.
18. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.

19. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.
20. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.

21. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.
22. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.

23. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.
24. Bryan's Ignorance of Trusts.

COMPANY STORE AT AUDENREID, PA., IN THE STRIKE REGION.